

Finance Leadership Council (FLC)

The Finance Leadership Council addresses common financial management issues within the supplier industry. The council welcomes and recruits all levels of finance leaders, empowering members to gain expert insights and industry best practices from trusted peers. Our members are a community of finance professionals and industry leaders, that come together to explore various strategic risks and compliance issues.

Discussion Topics

Cybersecurity: Ransomware & Profile of a Tabletop Exercise

Gaining Clarity into Supply Chain Financial Health

Charging Ahead: Production Planning Outlook

AI's Role in Finance: Robotic Process Automation & Beyond

Washington D.C.: Policy Dynamics & Advocacy Update

Under Pressure: Supply Chain Risk & Restructuring

Factoring Fundamentals: Tools for Supply Chain Finance

The New Recession Playbook

Stewarding ESG in the Mobility Supply Chain

Council Benefits

- ✓ Meetings build a powerful community
- ✓ Learn best practices from trusted peers via dynamic discussions
- ✓ Timely and compelling topics provide actionable insights
- ✓ Recurring meetings foster trust and strengthen industry contacts
- ✓ Exclusive peer group surveys devoted to the finance function
- ✓ Accelerate learning to save valuable time and resources

Learn more by contacting:

Mike Jackson
Executive Director,
Strategy and Research
(248) 388-8912
mjackson@mema.org